There were no nominations for Adjutant, Chaplain or post Historian, and those positions will be filled as per Department of Ohio requirements.

Election for the Post Commander position will be by paper ballots with the additional rules in place per post constitution/Bylaws.

Election Date: April 1st, 2026

Election Times: 2:00 pm until 7:00 pm

Election Location: Post 211 in Hallbury Hall

The election committee is composed of members Ed Soto, Scarlett Fleck and Commander Mike Schrull.

To be eligible to vote, members must present to the election committee, a 2026 paid legion membership card, to be checked against an updated Post 211 membership roster (provided by the membership committee.) There will be no absentee or proxy ballots permitted.

At the close of elections (7:00 pm.), ballots will be counted by the election committee and the results will be presented to the membership during the membership meeting. The ballots will then be sealed in a manner determined by the election committee, and placed in the legion safe, to be retained for two (2) months. If there is no contest of the election at the end of two (2) months, the ballots will be destroyed in a manner determined by the election committee. If you have any questions, contact the post directors or election committee.
